I am a fan of this site and I think it is great like this. An author share personal stories like this and other authors can comment on them. You can even have comments. The good thing about this site is that you can earn points after publishing. You can use these points to buy books, download e-books and other nice features.

The bad thing is that authors are not so interesting as here and stories tend to be very similar and banal

Another example would be:

Yes, I know. Shut it.), even if it was abandoned. Two, that this story can still be applied to this website's standards, despite its age. Yikes.
